AOTS Spring Roundup May 1 – 3, 2020

Discipleship 20/20

The Reverend Maya Douglas is a minister who is currently serving Queensville Holland Landing United Church in East Gwillimbury, just north of Newmarket. A former intern and appointed minister at Bloor Street UC, Maya has also preached at Lansing, Eastminster, Jubilee and Forest Hill United Churches. She currently chairs the Standards Committee for the Board of Vocation and chairs the Mental Health Task Group for General Council. During her free time she canoes, dances (lyrical-modern, African, and Caribbean), and watches sci-fi movies and documentaries.

Maya is an Emmanuel College alum twice over - with a Master of Religious Education in 2008 and the Master of Divinity in 2016. Previous to (and during) her studies she taught in diverse elementary school settings from Montréal to Japan to here in Toronto for 22 years. Maya is a born Canadian of Taíno and African-Jamaican ancestry; all of these interwoven identities, give shape to, and will likely continue to form and inform her life.
